

BET TZEDEK - THE HOUSE OF JUSTICE CONSUMER GUIDES

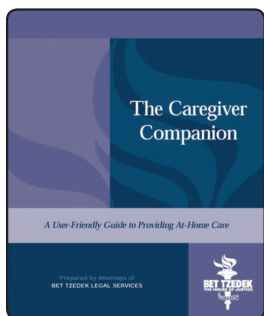

Bet Tzedek's highly acclaimed consumer guides have become a vital resource to consumers, attorneys, social workers, health care professionals and families alike. Using easy-to-understand language, the guides explain relevant state and federal law on critical issues involving long-term care and kinship care and offer additional resources.

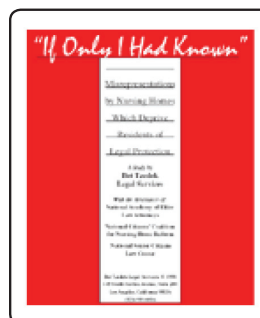

Caring for a Relative's Child
A 72-page guide to benefits, services and resources for people raising children of relatives (also available in Spanish - online only)

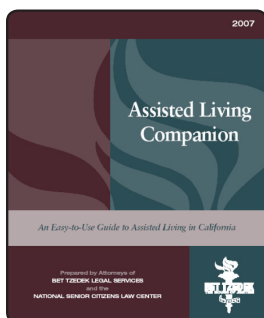

Nursing Home Companion
A 59-page booklet which clearly and succinctly explains the laws and practices of California's nursing homes and legal protections for residents (English version temporarily unavailable until further notice; also available in Spanish - online only)

The Caregiver Companion
A 102-page guide that offers information and resources to persons needing home care as well as their families (also available in Spanish)

If Only I Had Known: Misrepresentations by Nursing Homes which Deprive Residents of Legal Protection
A 32-page study with 31 additional pages of examples documenting how nursing homes often misrepresent relevant law to nursing home residents and their family members (available online only)

Assisted Living Companion
An 80-page guide that answers many common questions about assisted living facilities and provides a starting point for finding the ideal homelike environment
